

BEGINNING DRAWING CLASSES

with Dixon Leavitt

Three two-hour workshops

Funding made possible by the Sorenson Legacy Foundation and artworks for kids!

September 23, 30, and October 7, 2009

4:00-6:00 p.m. on the SUU campus, room 105, Eccles Jones Building.

All materials are provided,

So all you'll need to bring is your oh-so-ready-to-learn-self. Plus, there will be a drawing at each workshop for a classroom set of art supplies (can't beat that, really.) Not to mention, this class counts towards relicensure.

Course Description

Friendly. Encouraging. And possibly inspirational.

Wednesday September 23rd, 4-6p.m.

How to Draw: How to See

An introduction to drawing accurately from observation. (Impresses at parties!)

Wednesday September 30th, 4-6p.m.

How to Draw: How to Know

An introduction to form, shading, perspective, and drawing from the imagination. (Impresses friends. Or at least can help in imagining them impressed.)

Wednesday October 7th, 4-6p.m.

How to Draw: How to put it all Together

An introduction to design (Good design will bring anyone who wasn't impressed up to this point to their knees!)

For registration please contact Carrie Trenholm at trenholm@suu.edu, 865-8271, or Sue Workman at workmans@suu.edu.